

Stopping power...

John Grigg, Access Control Point Program (ACPEP), Huntsville Engineering and Support Center (left), performs a quality assurance check on an active barrier with Jonathan Koch, formerly with Europe District's Installation Support Branch. The hydraulic powered beam barrier can completely stop a truck in two seconds. The barrier is only part of the $447,000 security upgrade to the main gate in Dexheim, Germany, which is managed by Europe District.